

Here are some interview questions for church members giving an oral history:

Personal & Family History

- When and how did you first get involved with this church?
 - Can you tell me about your family's history with the church? Were they also members?
 - What are some of your earliest memories of being here? What was the church like then?

Community & Spiritual Life

- How has the church community supported you through significant life events, both good and bad?
 - What role has the church played in your personal spiritual growth?
 - Can you share a specific memory of a service, event, or person that was particularly meaningful to you?

Changes Over Time

- How has the physical building of the church changed over the years?
 - What are the most significant changes you've seen in the church's worship style or traditions?
 - How has the church's role in the broader community evolved?

Legacy & Future

- What do you hope future generations remember about this church?
- Is there anything else you'd like to share that you feel is vital to the history of this church?
- What does the future of the church look like to you?
